

Sarah King: A Leader in Occupational Health Nursing

Expert Nurse Brings Valuable Experience to Enhance Employee Well-Being and Safety Initiatives at Lincoln Industries

New York City, New York Apr 16, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Lincoln Industries is proud to spotlight the continued dedication of Sarah King, COHN-S, as a Certified Occupational Health Nurse-Specialist. With a robust background in injury management and workplace health promotion, Sarah is poised to make a significant impact on the well-being of Lincoln Industries' employees.

Sarah joined Lincoln Industries after successfully managing a team at Tecumseh Poultry LLC, Smart Chicken, where her expertise in injury management and occupational health played a crucial role in enhancing workplace safety. At Lincoln Industries, she collaborates with interdisciplinary teams to effectively manage injury cases and promote health initiatives that align with the company's mission of prioritizing employee well-being and safety.

A dedicated advocate for the health of workers, Sarah is committed to integrating her extensive knowledge in injury management, hearing conservation, and respiratory health into Lincoln Industries' workplace culture. "I am excited to be part of a company that shares my values of safety and employee care," Sarah stated. "My goal is to ensure that every employee has access to the resources and support they need to thrive at work and beyond."

Sarah's educational foundation began in 2007 at Southeast Community College, where she completed her Licensed Practical/Vocational Nurse Training. She furthered her education by obtaining an Associate of Science in Registered Nursing from Metropolitan Community College in 2017, followed by a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Nebraska Medical Center in 2019. Her commitment to lifelong learning is evident in her professional certifications, including her certification through the American Board for Occupational Health Nurses.

In addition to her clinical skills, Sarah is an active member of the American Association of Occupational Health Nurses, the leading professional organization for nurses engaged in occupational and environmental health nursing. With over a decade of experience, her passion for connecting with others on a personal level drives her to support the medical needs of the working class.

At Lincoln Industries, Sarah King aims to make a meaningful difference in the lives of employees, ensuring their health and safety remain at the forefront of the company's operations.
