

Self-Taught Developer Mohammad Shareef Launches SRF Developer Platform

Mohammad Shareef shares his tech journey, websites, and content for developers and tech lovers.

Kundapura, Karnataka Apr 7, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Independent software developer Mohammad Shareef, widely recognized by his digital identity SRF Developer, is reshaping the online tech landscape through his innovative platforms – srfdeveloper.com and srfdeveloper.tech. With no backing from large corporations, Shareef has built a trusted brand for developers, learners, and tech lovers across India and beyond.

A Digital Home for Developers

The main hub, srfdeveloper.com, is a growing resource for budding developers and programmers. It features well-organized content on:

- CMS Platforms
- APIs and SQL integration
- CSS and PHP coding tips
- Basic-to-advanced tech explanations

His mission is simple: empower others with useful, no-fluff technical knowledge. Whether you're learning to code, launching a tool, or exploring backend logic – his platform is a go-to reference.

Honest, Real Tech Reviews

Through <https://www.srfdeveloper.com>, Mohammad keeps tech fans informed with genuine gadget reviews and upcoming tech trends. The blog covers:

- Latest smartphones & laptops
- Smart gadgets & AI-based tech
- Hands-on reviews with practical insights
- Upcoming product leaks and spec breakdowns

SRF Tech Reviews offers users a clutter-free, honest opinion on trending technology – avoiding hype, focusing on facts.

Educating the Masses via YouTube

His YouTube channel – SRF Developer – features walkthroughs, app demos, and development insights. It acts as a visual extension of his websites, making tech learning easier for beginners and inspiring solo developers.

“I started with zero followers and zero experience — but I had one thing: dedication. Today, I build to inspire others like me,” says Mohammad Shareef.

A Tech Brand on the Rise

With active projects, a strong social presence on Instagram @_.shareef._03, and consistent publishing, Mohammad is fast becoming a respected face in the independent Indian tech community.

His digital platforms stand as proof that passion, knowledge, and consistency can shape an authentic tech brand – without investors, teams, or paid ads.
