

SpeakUp Launches World's First AI-Powered App That Revolutionizes Speaker Booking

Dubai, United Arab Emirates Apr 13, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - In an era where booking a home or taxi takes seconds, finding the right speaker for your event is still a long and outdated process. SpeakUp is here to change that. Officially launched today in Dubai, SpeakUp is the world's first AI-powered mobile app that seamlessly connects speakers, podcasters, journalists, and event organizers — without agencies, emails, or commissions.

With just one tap, users can discover and book the perfect match in seconds, using intelligent filters powered by advanced machine learning algorithms.

"We're building the Airbnb of the speaking world — but smarter," said Helen Kareva, founder of SpeakUp. "Our mission is to democratize speaker access globally by removing all the usual friction."

Key Features:

- One-Tap AI Matching: Instantly pair with ideal speakers or events.
- Smart Filters: Customize search by region, industry, language, topic, and more.
- Zero Commission: 100% free from agency fees or intermediaries.
- Global Marketplace: Thousands of users across MENA, the U.S., India, Singapore, and Europe.

Traction:

- Crunchbase Rank: #64,113 out of 5.2M+ startups globally
- Growth Score: 93 (↑ 22 points in the last quarter)
- Heat Score: 93 (↑ 92 points in the last quarter)
- Top 85 by F6S: Ranked among the 85 most promising Entertainment Startups globally in 2025

Meet the Founders:

- Helen Kareva – Former Head of Talent Development Systems at Russian Post and NLMK, built two of Russia's largest internal career ecosystems.
- Nikita Zhuchkov – Forbes 30 Under 30 (2022), ex-Director of Innovation at MTS & Russian Post, led national digital transformation and AI strategy initiatives.

SpeakUp Is for:

- Event organizers seeking relevant and verified experts.
- Speakers looking to get discovered and booked internationally.
- Media and podcasts sourcing thought leaders in real-time.

The app is currently free to use until October 1, 2025, giving early adopters unlimited access to all premium features.
