The Craven Food Truck Launches in Bucks County, PA, Redefining Gourmet French Fries

Quakertown, Pennsylvania Apr 8, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - The Craven, a bold new food truck concept, is officially hitting the streets of Bucks County, Pennsylvania, offering a menu that celebrates French fries as the main event. With a focus on bold flavors, premium ingredients, and creative toppings, The Craven is poised to become the go-to destination for fry lovers throughout the region.

Specializing in handcrafted, made-to-order French fry creations, The Craven delivers an elevated street food experience that's both fun and crave-worthy. Signature menu items include:

- Craven Fries – Classic house-cut fries tossed in a signature seasoning blend.
- Garlic Parmesan Fries – Topped with garlic blend seasoning and smothered in a house-made Parmesan cheese sauce.
- Poutine Fries – Loaded with fresh white cheddar cheese curds and rich, savory gravy.
- Pulled Pork Fries – Carolina-style pulled pork over fries with a sweet heat BBQ drizzle.
- Pickle Back Fries – Dill-seasoned fries with chipotle ranch and crisp pickles.
- Craven Nacho Fries – An indulgent fry pile-up with cheese sauce, jalapeños, bacon, pork, caramelized onions, and sour cream.

“Our mission is simple—take something people already love and make it unforgettable,” said Travis Waldspurger, owner of The Craven. “We’re not just serving fries. We’re creating flavor experiences that people crave.”

The Craven is currently operating throughout Bucks County, with plans to expand into surrounding counties in the near future. In addition to street service, the truck is also available for catering private events, festivals, and parties.
