

The World's First Visual QR Code Art Shop Opens Its Digital Doors

Artvizual Unveils a New Era of Visual QR Codes.

Amsterdam, Netherlands Apr 10, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Artvizual, founded by digital creative James Haselhoef, proudly announces the launch of the world's first online store dedicated to artistic QR code designs — a bold leap in merging technological utility with visual identity. Artvizual transforms everyday QR codes into one-of-a-kind digital artworks, ready for instant download and real-world application.

"We're excited to introduce a new era of QR codes," said James Haselhof, founder of Artvizual. "These aren't just QR codes, they're powerful visual assets that tell a story, strengthen branding, and offer real versatility."

Unlike standard QR codes, each Artvizual design is exclusive and sold only once, including a dynamic link, allowing users to update their destination anytime. This means lasting value and unmatched flexibility.

Key Benefits:

Instantly Downloadable & Print-Ready.

Changeable links — update where your code leads.

Exclusivity — each design is a digital original, sold once only.

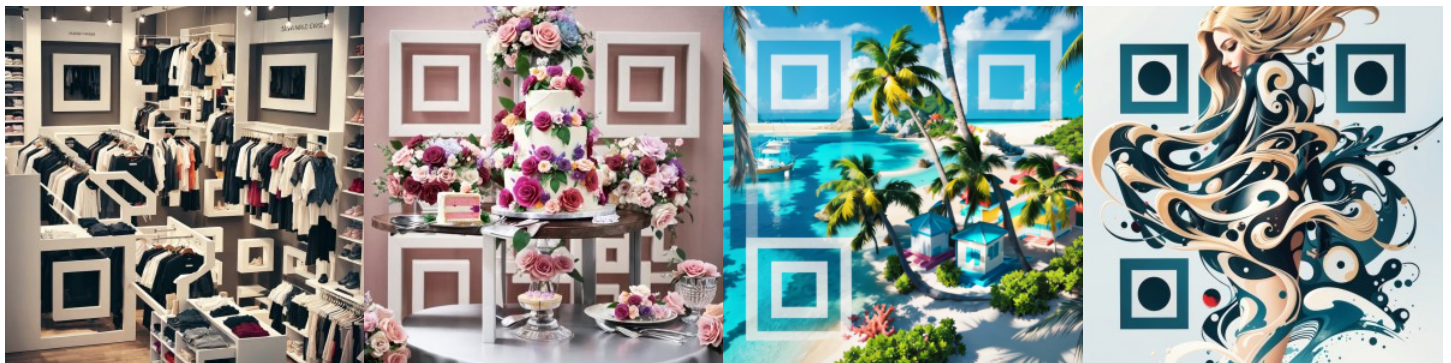

Interactive power — suitable for marketing, packaging, apparel, events, and more.

From forward-thinking brands to independent creators, Artvizual empowers users to take their QR strategy to the next level.

"It's not just about access — it's about expression, impact, and innovation."

Artvizual is dedicated to premium visual QR code designs.

Blending creativity with cutting-edge tech, we transform scannable codes into digital art—ready for marketing, branding, apparel, and immersive experiences. Every design is unique, functional, and built to stand out.
