The Best Sandwiches in Delaware

When it comes to scrapple, T.S. Smith & Son Orchard Point Market takes the prize for serving up the best scrapple sandwiches in the state. Crispy on the outside, tender on the inside, and packed with flavor, their homemade scrapple is a must-try for anyone who enjoys this Delaware classic. Served generously on your choice of bread, it's the perfect way to start your day.

But the scrapple sandwiches are just one of the highlights at this farm-to-table cafe. The market offers a full breakfast and lunch menu that highlights locally sourced ingredients and homemade dishes. And they just announced their new catering menu. Some of their most popular offerings include the Remi's Reuben and the Bridgeville Bacon Bomb.

Popular Menu Items & Rotating Specials

In addition to their scrapple sandwiches, the menu at T.S. Smith & Son Orchard Point Market includes several standout items that have quickly become favorites. The homemade chicken salad sandwiches and wraps are made fresh daily, offering a light yet flavorful option that's perfect for any time of day. If you're in the mood for something heartier, the grilled Reuben is a standout, with tender corned beef, Swiss cheese, and tangy sauerkraut, all perfectly grilled to melt in your mouth.

For those who love variety, the market features a rotating specials menu, ensuring there's always something new and exciting to try. Whether it's a seasonal dish or a customer favorite making a comeback, there's always something to keep you coming back for more. Their heat-and-eat meals have become a popular seller in their to-go case, giving the Bridgeville community convenient, homemade meal options for busy weeknights and weekends.
