

Walnut Publication Celebrates the Grand Unveiling of Two Remarkable Books at New Delhi World Book Fair 2025

In a momentous event at the International Events Corner, Bharat Mandapam, Walnut Publication proudly unveiled two compelling literary works, Ocoxal: The Pine Leaves and Three Decades in Diplomacy: A Book of Practical Diplomatic Experience.

Noida, Uttar Pradesh Apr 1, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Ocoxal: The Pine Leaves, co-authored by Dr. ShriMati Das, Ricardo Pérez Torres, and Dr. Yogendra Sharma, was unveiled by Dr. ShriMati Das, Former Secretary & Director of the Gurudev Tagore Indian Cultural Centre, Mexico, Shri D.C. Sharma, Former Director General of Civil Aviation, India, and Thakur Virender Pratap Singh Charak, Senior Standing Counsel, Union of India. The ceremony was graced by the presence of esteemed dignitaries, including Dr. Dibakar Das, Director, Centre for Cultural Research and Training, Ministry of Culture, Government of India; Shri Vimal Sharma, Retired Indian Administrative Service (IAS), Haryana; Jonak Das, Senior Faculty, National Institute of Design, Ahmedabad, who is involved in designing the 75 Years of India's Independence Theme Pavilion at Bharat Mandapam; V.S. Negi, Under Secretary, NITI Aayog, Government of India; Shri Pradeep Srivastava, Deputy Legal Advisor, Ministry of Law; Judge Shri N.P. Kaushik; Adv. Bhuvanesh Saini Ji, Retired Chairman, Income Tax Appellate Tribunal; and Astha Sharma, a specialist in Korean Literature. The book presents a collection of thirty powerful stories that shed light on the often-overlooked realities faced by children across the world. It challenges readers to reflect deeply, urging them to question societal norms and take action beyond the pages of the book.

Three Decades in Diplomacy: A Book of Practical Diplomatic Experience, authored by Ambassador Mohan Krishna Shrestha, was unveiled by [Name of Chief Guest], in the presence of distinguished guests [Names of attendees]. The book provides an insightful and engaging account of Ambassador Shrestha's three-decade-long career in Nepal's diplomatic service. Through vivid anecdotes and firsthand experiences, the book offers a rare glimpse into the world of diplomacy, making it an essential read for aspiring diplomats and foreign policy enthusiasts.

Speaking on the occasion, Ms. Shradha Mishra and Ms. Shubashree, Publishing Directors- Walnut Publication expressed immense pride in bringing such impactful books to the literary world. "Both these books represent a deep commitment to storytelling, knowledge-sharing, and inspiring change. It is an honor to have these works unveiled in the presence of such esteemed dignitaries."

The New Delhi World Book Fair 2025, running from February 1 to 9, continues to be a hub for literary celebrations, with Republic@75 as this year's theme. The event offers a platform for authors, publishers, and readers to connect and engage in meaningful discourse.

For more details on these books and other publications, visit www.walnutpublication.com.

For media inquiries, please contact Ms. Subhashree | Phone: 9911333928

Media Contact

Walnut Publication

@walnutpublication.com

9911333792

Unit# 909, 9th Floor, Wave Silver Tower, Sector-18

Source : Walnut Publication

See on IssueWire

