

Anna Beresford Appointed Miss Connecticut 2025

College Freshman and Mental Health Advocate to Represent Connecticut in the Inaugural Miss United Crown of America National Pageant This September

New Britain, Connecticut May 9, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Miss United Crown of America, the national pageant platform spotlighting leadership, purpose, and personal excellence, has officially appointed New Britain, Connecticut local, Anna Beresford as Miss Connecticut 2025. As part of the inaugural class of state titleholders, Beresford will represent the state of Connecticut in the upcoming national competition on September 21, 2025.

A freshman in college, Beresford is currently double majoring in journalism and communications while also pursuing her real estate license. Outside the classroom, she is the founder of Anna's Awareness Initiative, a mental health advocacy organization that has reached over 7,000 people globally through education, outreach, and online campaigns.

"Being appointed Miss Connecticut 2025 is an incredible honor," Beresford shared. "I'm committed to using this title to advocate for mental health awareness and show young women that your voice matters—both in your community and on a national stage."

Miss United Crown of America was established to recognize individuals not just for beauty or performance, but for their confidence, character, and commitment to personal growth and public impact. The pageant crowns titleholders across six age divisions and brings together delegates from all 50 states and U.S. territories.

As Miss Connecticut 2025, Beresford joins a nationwide movement that redefines modern pageantry through service, representation, and purpose-driven leadership.
