

Archangel & Crown Vega Deliver A Blazing NEW EP: ONE OF DEM

Memphis, Tennessee May 27, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - When raw ambition meets calculated craftsmanship, the result is One of Dem—a no-skips, high-octane EP from rising hip-hop powerhouses Archangel and Crown Vega. This seven-track offering is a statement project. A warning shot. A bold claim that the real are still in the game—and they're not here to play.

Every track on One of Dem flexes a different muscle of the duo's arsenal:

- “F U” sets the tone with ruthless energy and zero compromise. It’s a lyrical middle finger to fake love, false alliances, and anyone who ever doubted the mission.
- “In the Way” is a cold dismissal of anything or anyone standing between these two and the finish line. Menacing, focused, and untouchable.
- “We da Ones” is a pure declaration—an anthem for the chosen few who rise from the bottom and wear their scars like armor.
- “Everything but Basic” shines with unapologetic elegance. Archangel and Crown Vega remind you they don’t do average—and they don’t move like anyone else.
- “Go the Distance” taps into the grind mentality, chronicling the late nights and the losses that built their resilience. It’s motivational music for the self-made.
- “I Need That” brings the hunger full circle, pairing hard-hitting production with surgical bars. It’s about more than just desire—it’s about destiny.
- “Motion” closes the set with style and precision. Cinematic and slick, it’s the sound of two artists in full control of their lane—and accelerating.

Together, Archangel and Crown Vega are a natural pairing—sharpening each other’s delivery, energy, and presence across every beat. One of Dem doesn’t follow trends. It sets the tone for what’s next.
