

Behind BTC's Soaring Price: How Cloud Mining Becomes the New 'Passive Income' Choice for Cryptocurrency?

Top cryptocurrency analyst Peter Brandt reports that miners have recently taken advantage of Bitcoin's impressive price rise, realizing nearly $39.6 million in profits as the price soared to over $100,000.

Blooming Grove, New York May 17, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Data shows that Bitcoin is decoupling from the U.S. stock market and trading closer to gold, which once again proves Bitcoin's growing role as a safe-haven asset against global economic turmoil. With the rapid development of the digital economy, cloud mining has become an important trend in the blockchain industry. As a leader in cloud mining investment, KixaMiner is committed to revolutionizing the way people mine in the cloud.

The Appeal of kixaMiner
