

Billion Dollar Betrayal in Grand Lucayan signing ceremony

Grand Lucayan Resort Heads of Agreement Signing Ceremony: Lawsuit Filed Against Concord Wilshire for Anticipatory Breach of Contract and Unjust Enrichment Amidst Promise of New Beginnings

Miami, Florida May 15, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - The Honorable Philip E. Davis, Prime Minister and Minister of Finance, cordially invites you to attend the official Heads of Agreement signing ceremony for the redevelopment of the Grand Lucayan Resort. This significant event is scheduled for Thursday, May 15, 2025, at 2 PM at the Lighthouse Convention Centre, Grand Lucayan Freeport.

This ceremony marks a hopeful milestone for the community; however, it coincides with a lawsuit filed against Concord Wilshire for anticipatory breach of contract and unjust enrichment. Innovators Joseph Brown and Howard Babcock, who have been instrumental in positioning the resort as a lucrative investment opportunity, are seeking rightful compensation for their contributions after facing significant challenges.

The lawsuit highlights ongoing grievances stemming from their extensive work and commitment to the project, which aimed to revitalize the Grand Lucayan Resort. Unfortunately, their efforts have been overshadowed by issues of recognition and commission.

As we gather to celebrate the signing ceremony, it is crucial to underscore the importance of ethical business practices and accountability in all dealings. Restoring the Grand Lucayan Resort is more than a local endeavor; it represents a commitment to honor the contributions of those who have invested their time and resources.

We urge all members of the press to investigate fair treatment for those who actually did the work and to ensure that the Colliers Group does not benefit from the years of labor dedicated by Brown and team.
