

Call to Submit Entries Now for the 2025 BASA Awards®

Atlanta, Georgia May 21, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - The BASA Awards® are thrilled to announce that entries are now open for the 2025 awards season. Recognizing the extraordinary achievements of small businesses, this prestigious program celebrates innovation, resilience, and community impact across four countries: the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, and Australia.

Now in its latest season, the BASA Awards® continues to elevate the voices and ventures that too often go unrecognized. The BASA Awards® consists of four programs, all running in parallel:

- Best of America Small Business Awards
- Best of Australia Small Business Awards
- Best of Canada Small Business Awards
- Best of UK Small Business Awards

Entrepreneurs and small business leaders from all industries are invited to showcase their success stories and highlight the impact they've made in their communities and beyond. Entries are open until August 20, 2025.

"We believe in celebrating the unsung heroes of our economy, the small businesses that fuel innovation, create jobs, and enrich our communities," said Anna Stella, President of BASA Awards®. Despite their significant role, they often operate in the shadows of larger corporations. The BASA Awards are our platform to rectify that oversight – to acknowledge and elevate the remarkable achievements of small businesses worldwide."

Who Can Enter

The awards are open to small businesses established, legally operating, and actively operating in the USA, Canada, the UK, or Australia. Entrants are encouraged to submit applications that highlight their business accomplishments, from pioneering strategies and growth milestones to social impact and creative innovation.

With six tracks and over 150 award categories, the BASA Awards offer ample opportunity for businesses to find their niche and gain well-deserved recognition on a global platform.

Fair and Transparent Judging

The BASA Awards prides itself on its rigorous and impartial judging process, overseen by an esteemed panel of independent industry experts. Each entry is assessed on merit, ensuring that all winners are recognized fairly and authentically.

“The integrity of our judging process is paramount,” added Anna Stella. “At BASA, every submission is reviewed thoroughly and fairly. We understand the challenges small businesses face – and we’re here to honor their genuine achievements.”
