

CapitalTech Launches DealWire A Curated Investment Briefing

Delivering Tokenized Income Deals to Accredited Investors

Fort Lauderdale, Florida May 23, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - CapitalTech, LLC, a pioneer in alternative finance and structured investment syndication, proudly announces the launch of CapitalTech DealWire, its flagship investor newsletter delivering direct access to exclusive investment offerings, industry insights, and platform updates for accredited investors, family offices, and business development professionals.

CapitalTech DealWire serves as a high-impact intelligence briefing designed to keep investors informed and engaged with cutting-edge opportunities in Revenue Sharing Agreements (RSAs), preferred equity instruments, tokenized SPVs, and inflation-protected income-generating investments. Published weekly or bi-weekly, the DealWire is an essential tool for anyone seeking to build a diversified alternative portfolio grounded in real revenue, not speculation.

“We built DealWire to be more than just a newsletter—it’s a front-row seat to the evolution of private investing,” said Kyle Meyer, Managing Director of CapitalTech. “Our mission is to decentralize investment banking and empower accredited investors to buy income, not just chase returns.”

Key features of DealWire include:

- Featured Deals – Tokenized RSAs and SPVs offering direct exposure to top-line revenue from vetted operating companies.
- Market Insights – Timely updates on structured finance, blockchain investment, and real asset trends.
- Sponsor Spotlights – In-depth profiles on businesses raising capital through CapitalTech.
