

Christine Walker, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2025 Top Agent

Preferred SHORE Real Estate agent combines a finance background and personalized service to guide clients with confidence

New York City, New York May 16, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Florida — Christine Walker, a residential Realtor with Preferred SHORE Real Estate, is earning a strong reputation across Florida for her results-driven, client-first approach. Holding an active Florida real estate license and bringing over a decade of combined experience in real estate and finance, Christine originally launched her career in Iowa before transitioning into mortgage lending. She returned to real estate in 2021, quickly establishing herself as a trusted advocate for buyers and sellers navigating a complex market.

Since reentering the industry, Christine has closed more than 120 transactions—an impressive achievement as a solo agent supported by a full-time assistant. Her comprehensive understanding of the home buying and selling process, coupled with sharp attention to detail, ensures that her clients receive strategic guidance every step of the way. She is particularly adept at navigating challenges posed by property damage and Florida's evolving insurance landscape, helping clients make informed, confident decisions.

Christine's experience spans a wide range of residential needs, including primary residences, second homes, and investment properties. She's known for her clear, consistent communication and her ability to craft strategies tailored to each client's unique goals and circumstances. Her personalized service, combined with deep local market knowledge, helps her clients feel supported throughout the entire transaction process.

With a strong foundation in both real estate and lending, Christine continues to offer the insight and professionalism that today's competitive market demands. As a member of the Preferred SHORE Real Estate team, she is committed to delivering exceptional results and creating lasting relationships in the communities she serves.
