

Dr. Peyton Johnson, DO, Brings Advanced Interventional Pain Management to New York City

Pain Management Expert, Physiatrist and U.S. Navy Flight Surgeon Enhances NYC's Pain Medicine Landscape

New York City, New York May 13, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Peyton Johnson, DO, is a specialist in Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation and Interventional Pain Medicine, and is now offering his expertise in New York City. With a distinguished background that includes serving as a Flight Surgeon in the U.S. Navy, Dr. Johnson brings a unique blend of military precision and compassionate care to his civilian practice.

Dr. Johnson earned his Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine degree from Kansas City University of Medicine and Biosciences in 2015. He holds active medical licenses in both New York and Virginia, valid through 2026. His clinical interests focus on minimally invasive procedures for managing chronic pain, including ultrasound and fluoroscopic-guided injections, radiofrequency ablation, and neuromodulation. His commitment to advancing pain management is evident by his numerous publications in pain management textbooks and peer-reviewed medical journals, including a co-authored publication on imaging-guided sacroiliac joint injections, featured in Interventional Pain Medicine in September 2022.

Patients seeking relief from conditions such as sciatica, spinal stenosis, herniated discs, joint pain, and cancer pain can benefit from Dr. Johnson's personalized treatment plans. His approach integrates cutting-edge interventional techniques with a holistic understanding of patient care, aiming to restore mobility and improve quality of life.
