

Elite Traders Inc Launches Elite Mentorship Program for Futures and Prop Firm Traders

Top-tier program delivers institutional strategies, Goldbach timing, and smart money execution for serious traders.

Orange, California May 3, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Elite Traders Inc., a leading U.S.-based trading mentorship company, is proud to announce the launch of its premier training program tailored for retail and prop firm traders. This elite-level curriculum combines smart money concepts, Goldbach timing models, and institutional execution strategies to help traders operate at a professional standard.

Led by founder Christopher Hunt, who brings over 20 years of market experience, Elite Traders Inc. provides daily live trading sessions, one-on-one coaching, and access to a proprietary market timing algorithm. Traders learn to read market structure, anticipate liquidity shifts, and execute trades with confidence — all without relying on indicators or retail-based patterns.

The mentorship focuses on building skillsets necessary for prop firm evaluations, funded account consistency, and self-sustained trading careers. With a growing reputation in the futures trading space, Elite Traders Inc. has quickly become a go-to resource for serious traders looking to scale up.
