

Fawzu F. Mohammadu, MD, FAAFP: A Dedicated Family Physician Committed to Patient Care and Community Wellbeing

Bringing Expertise in Preventive Healthcare and Charitable Initiatives to Connecticut

New York City, New York May 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Fawzu Mohammadu, a board-certified family medicine physician, continues to make a significant impact on the health and well-being of his patients and communities.

With an educational background from City College of New York and George Washington University School of Medicine, Dr. Mohammadu has developed a robust medical career that prioritizes preventative care and comprehensive patient treatment.

Dr. Mohammadu completed his residency in family medicine at Middlesex Hospital and further honed his surgical skills at Berkshire Medical Center. As a Fellow of the American Academy of Family Medicine, he is deeply committed to staying abreast of the latest advancements in the field. His expertise encompasses a wide range of preventative care services, including the management of chronic conditions such as diabetes and hypertension, as well as the treatment of various skin conditions.

Fluent in both Hausa and Ashanti, Dr. Mohammadu serves a diverse patient population, offering compassionate care to individuals aged five and older. His skill set includes performing in-office procedures, skin biopsies, excisions, drainage of abscesses, and treatment of nail disorders. Patients appreciate Dr. Mohammadu for his easy-going demeanor and his dedication to addressing their concerns thoroughly.

In addition to his clinical practice, Dr. Mohammadu serves as a Clinical Instructor at the University of Connecticut School of Medicine, where he shares his knowledge and expertise with the next generation of healthcare professionals. His commitment to education extends beyond the classroom, as he actively participates in several professional organizations, including the American Academy of Family Physicians and the Connecticut Academy of Family Physicians.

Outside of medicine, Dr. Mohammadu is passionate about philanthropy. He is the CEO of Zayituna Medical Solutions, an organization dedicated to providing clean water and medical services to underserved regions in Ghana. His efforts aim to improve the quality of life for those in need, showcasing his belief in the importance of giving back to the community.

When asked about his success, Dr. Mohammadu attributes it to hard work, dedication, and the unwavering support of his family and colleagues. He balances his professional commitments with personal interests such as soccer, tennis, and travel, ensuring a well-rounded life.

Dr. Fawzu Mohammadu is not only a skilled physician but also a compassionate advocate for patient care and community support. His journey reflects a commitment to excellence in medicine and a heartfelt desire to make a difference in the lives of others.
