Greater Metropolitan Area, Philippines Feb 6, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - The freelance industry is ripe for disruption. For too long, freelancers have been burdened by expensive platforms, unfair competition, and the constant threat of scams. Hainz'el Llanelly Cantos, a Filipino freelancer, is tackling this head-on with GigGenius, a new freelance marketplace currently under extensive development but already showing immense promise.

While GigGenius isn't fully launched yet, its core principles are already clear: fairness, security, and accessibility. The platform is designed to be completely free for both freelancers and businesses, eliminating the predatory fees and connection costs that plague other marketplaces. This commitment to equity ensures a level playing field, where talent and experience, not budget, determine success.

"We're building GigGenius from the ground up, with the freelancer in mind," says Hainz'el Llanelly. "We understand the struggles, the frustrations, and the need for a truly fair and secure platform. We're not just creating a website; we're building a community."

A key element of GigGenius is its rigorous manual verification process for all user profiles. This commitment to security is predominant, ensuring a safer environment and minimizing the risk of scams. While this process adds to the verification process GigGenius believes it's an essential investment in the integrity and trust of the platform. GigGenius is currently under extensive development, but significant progress is being made.

The core features are in place, and the team is working diligently to finalize the platform and prepare for a full launch. While a specific launch date isn't yet available, the team is committed to delivering a revolutionary freelance experience. This isn't just about building a website; it's about building a movement – a movement for fairness, for transparency, and for a more equitable freelance world. GigGenius is a testament to the power of one person's vision to create meaningful change. Stay tuned for updates as GigGenius continues its journey towards launch.
