

Filippo Biagioli, A Month of Celebrating "Analphabetic Art" in Vercelli

Vercelli, Italy May 6, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Vercelli is well-revered for embracing art, and this province in Northern Italy is currently preparing for its month-long celebrations of Filippo Biagioli. The city will celebrate the art of Filippo Biagioli through two solo exhibitions and various events throughout May. It will also mark the return of an artist whose creative path has been lying in the city for 20 years ago. The first exhibition is scheduled to take place at the Casa d'Arte Viadeimercati art gallery situated at 3, Vibio Crispo Street, Vercelli on the date of 10th May 2025 at 6.00 P.M. This exhibition for Contemporary Art will be curated by Claudio Maria Balocco and Paola Bertolazzi.

Biagioli's abilities and artistic evolution can be explored through this exhibition, which focuses on the means of expression in his diversified artworks. From embroidered fabrics, notebooks, and books, to painting polaroids, wood, murals, and art videos, the artworks can be explored through various mediums. Similarly, there will be a solo exhibition of Filippo Biagioli held at the Casa-Museo "Mario Carrara" located at Somalia Street, Vercelli, on 30th, 31st May, and 1st June 2025 at 3.00 P.M. This exclusive exhibition will be including sculptures, canvas, masks, and many other creations that can showcase the artist's primary and instinctive thoughts. There will be a total of forty works of art present there.

The work of Filippo Biagioli is highly precious, relevant, and thought-provoking in this modern world. As a result, most of the works are curated in national and international art museums and institutions, including the Kandinsky Library of the Centre Pompidou in Paris, the Library of the Images Department of the British Museum in London, and many others. The upcoming exhibitions and the May celebrations will help art enthusiasts explore "Analphabetic Art" by Filippo Biagioli. Find out more at <http://www.filippo-biagioli.com/>.
