

FreeYourMusic powers SoundCloud's new 'Move Your Music' feature

Leading playlist transfer platform FreeYourMusic has partnered with SoundCloud, powering the new "Move Your Music" feature and helping millions of users migrate their music libraries with ease.

New York City, New York May 28, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - FreeYourMusic helps users move effortlessly between music streaming services like Spotify, Apple Music, Amazon Music, Tidal, and Deezer. With just a few clicks, your curated playlists, saved albums, and favorite tracks come with you – no manual work, no lost data.

Now, we're proud to announce a partnership with one of the most recognizable names in music: SoundCloud.

As SoundCloud rolls out Move Your Music, FreeYourMusic powers the tech behind it, offering a smooth migration experience for users ready to explore SoundCloud without starting over.

What is "Move Your Music"?

SoundCloud's Move Your Music feature lets users import playlists and liked tracks. Choose your current streaming service, start the transfer, and bring your music to SoundCloud. Fast, efficient, simple.

A shared commitment to music and listeners

SoundCloud is known for community-driven discovery, independent music, and championing creators. FreeYourMusic brings the infrastructure and experience to ensure users don't lose what they love – their music. This collaboration means both existing and new SoundCloud users can transfer collections with their playlists, favorites, and history intact.

Powered by MusicAPI – built by FreeYourMusic

At the heart of this partnership is MusicAPI (<https://musicapi.com/>), a powerful, developer-friendly solution built by FreeYourMusic founders Bart and Mike Hernas. It's already trusted by top platforms and helps music apps scale faster.

Here's what they're building:

- MusicAPI – Unified streaming integration, used by Gaana and SoundCloud, with more on the way
- FreeYourMusic (<https://freeyourmusic.com/>)- industry-leading music transfer app, on iOS, macOS, Android, Linux & Windows.
- SongsBrew.com – A newsletter curating the best in sound and streaming culture, collaborating with 1824 (UMG)
- Music24.com – Quick, efficient tools for music-focused links and playlist sharing
- Musicposter.io – A fun way to turn your music taste into a free poster

With a deep understanding of listener behavior and industry shifts, they're creating the next wave of music tools – built for artists, labels, and streaming services. From newsletter discovery to playlist transfers and API infrastructure, they're helping music move.

Bottom line? A better way to Move Your Music.

No more starting from scratch. Open SoundCloud, hit transfer, and keep listening to what matters.
