International Conference on Law and Economics (ICLE-2025) is scheduled to be held on May 12, 2025, in Aizawl, Mizoram, India, and is organized by IISTEM.

Belagula, Karnataka May 8, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - The upcoming International Conference on Law and Economics (ICLE-2025) is set to take place on May 12, 2025, in the vibrant city of Aizawl, Mizoram, India. Organized by IISTEM, this prestigious academic gathering will bring together legal scholars, economists, researchers, and professionals from diverse backgrounds for a day of dynamic discussion and collaboration.

With a focus on interdisciplinary exchange, ICLE-2025 aims to foster dialogue around contemporary challenges and advancements in the intersection of law and economics. The conference will serve as a vital platform for participants to share innovative research, discuss theoretical developments, and explore real-world applications that impact policy, governance, markets, and legal systems worldwide.

Conference Highlights:

- International Networking: A key opportunity for academics and practitioners to meet face-to-face, exchange ideas, and build collaborations across borders.
- Cutting-Edge Topics: Presentations and discussions will cover pressing themes such as regulatory frameworks, economic reforms, legal policy, financial law, public choice theory, and more.
- Call for Papers: Scholars are encouraged to submit original, unpublished research papers by April 27, 2025. Selected papers will be peer-reviewed and considered for publication in recognized academic journals.
- Knowledge Building: Attendees will benefit from keynote addresses, breakout sessions, and expert panels that highlight emerging trends and scholarly developments in the fields of law and economics.

Conference also aspires to create an inclusive academic environment that promotes mutual learning and professional development. Whether you're an established academic, early-career researcher, policymaker, or industry leader, ICLE-2025 offers valuable insights and meaningful connections.
