

Impede TV Launches: The Ultimate Streaming Powerhouse Combining Every Service's Content Plus Live TV

Gainesville, Texas May 18, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - In a groundbreaking move set to revolutionize home entertainment, Impede, the all-in-one streaming platform, officially launches today. For the first time ever, viewers can access every major streaming service's content, including Netflix, Disney+, Hulu, HBO Max, Prime Video, and more — all under one subscription — plus live TV from top cable and broadcast networks.

Impede is the only platform designed to stop the endless app-switching, price-stacking, and content confusion, delivering a seamless, intuitive experience that puts the viewer in control. From blockbuster movies and binge-worthy series to real-time sports, news, and local channels, Impede is the destination where content finally meets convenience.

Key Features of Impede:

- Unified Library: Every streaming giant's content is curated in one place.
- Live TV Included: Watch sports, breaking news, and live events as they happen.
- Smart Personalization: AI-powered recommendations based on what you actually love — not just what's trending.
- No More App Hopping: One platform. One login. One bill.
- Cross-Service Search: Find the show or movie you want — no matter where it's hosted.

"Consumers are tired of juggling apps and subscriptions just to find what to watch," said Founder/Brent Wolff, CEO of Impede. "We created Impede to end the fragmentation of modern streaming. Our mission is simple: put all your favorite content in one place and make it incredibly easy to access."

Pricing & Availability:

Impede is available starting today on smart TVs, mobile devices, tablets, and web browsers. Subscription tiers start at $60.00/month, with premium family plans and DVR add-ons included.
