

Jules Lee Hoganson, LVN: A Passionate Advocate for Compassionate Nursing Care

Celebrating a Career Dedicated to Patient Care, Education, and Community Service

New York City, New York May 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Jules Lee Hoganson, a dedicated Licensed Vocational Nurse (LVN) with nearly three decades of experience in the medical field, is making a significant impact in correctional nursing at the El Dorado County Jail in South Lake Tahoe, CA. Known for his exceptional patient care and commitment to continuous learning, Jules has been recognized as Today's Nurse: Top Licensed Vocational Nurse in South Lake Tahoe.

Jules began his journey in healthcare at the age of 19 and has since amassed extensive experience across various medical settings, including hospitals, correctional facilities, and community health services. He holds a diploma in Vocational Nursing from Career Care Institute, completing his education in August 2004, and has specialized in correctional nursing, providing critical care in a challenging environment.

Throughout his career, Jules has demonstrated expertise in diverse nursing areas, including Med-Surg, Telemetry, Oncology, Emergency Department, Intensive Care Unit, and more. His experience in the unique environment of correctional nursing has equipped him with the skills to handle complex medical situations while maintaining the highest standards of care. In addition to his clinical skills, he is passionate about teaching and mentoring fellow nurses, sharing his knowledge and experiences to elevate the profession.

"I attribute my success to my faith, my passion for helping others, and the unwavering support from my friends, family, and significant other," Jules said. "I believe that with dedication and compassion, I can make a difference in the lives of my patients."

Jules is also an active member of the National Association of Licensed Practical Nurses, emphasizing his commitment to professional development and collaboration within the nursing community. His writing journey is just beginning, as he aims to share his insights and experiences with a broader audience, reflecting his love for writing and storytelling.

When he is not caring for patients, Jules enjoys spending time outdoors, camping, riding his bike, and exploring new cultures. His love for reading encompasses topics related to medicine, nursing, and spirituality, and he is deeply involved in his faith, attending church regularly to experience and share God's love.

Jules Lee Hoganson exemplifies the spirit of nursing—compassionate, dedicated, and ever-evolving. As he continues to serve his community in South Lake Tahoe, he inspires others in the healthcare profession to pursue excellence in patient care.
