

Kim McClure: Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2025 Top Agent

Dedicated to Empowering Clients Through Every Step of the Real Estate Journey

New York City, New York May 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Kim McClure, a dedicated Realtor with Keller Williams Realty Metro Atlanta, is making waves in the local real estate market by providing exceptional service to buyers and sellers throughout the Atlanta area. With an active real estate license in Georgia, Kim is committed to guiding her clients through every stage of the transaction, from strategic negotiations to contract execution, all while advocating for their best interests with integrity and precision.

Kim's career is rooted in over 30 years of professional experience with industry leaders such as Johnson & Johnson, Pfizer, and Comcast. Her background in corporate settings has equipped her with invaluable skills in creative problem-solving, strategic communications, and operational efficiency. This diverse experience includes proposal writing, investment funding, marketing, and location negotiations, giving her a unique edge in confidently navigating the complexities of real estate transactions.

Since entering the real estate industry in 2020, Kim has quickly established herself as a reliable REALTOR® during one of the most challenging global periods. Her ability to manage intricate deals and find tailored solutions has consistently supported her clients through life-changing transitions. With a foundation in analytical thinking and a deep respect for community building, Kim approaches every transaction with purpose, ensuring her clients feel supported and empowered throughout the process.

As a proud Atlanta native, Kim cherishes the city's rich diversity and dynamic housing landscape, where urban condos, tranquil countryside retreats, and stately mansions coexist within minutes. This vibrant environment allows her to help each client find their perfect fit, regardless of their lifestyle or preferences.

Kim attributes her success to a philosophy grounded in empathy and integrity. She treats clients as trusted friends, combining meticulous research with honest guidance to build lasting relationships throughout every home journey. For Kim McClure, real estate is not just about transactions; it's about empowering individuals and families to create their ideal living spaces in the heart of Atlanta.
