

Kristin Bone Honored for Excellence in Psychiatric Nursing and Mental Health Advocacy

Multifaceted healthcare professional recognized for her impactful contributions to mental health care and public awareness.

New York City, New York May 29, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Kristin Bone, a psychiatric registered nurse, actress, and model based in Linden, New Jersey, has been honored with the CREA Global Award and the Brainz 500 Global Award by Brainz Magazine. These accolades recognize her outstanding contributions to mental health care and her efforts to raise public awareness on mental health issues. She also recently received an award at the House of Lords in London as a Global Power

Leader for 2025, as an exemplary woman leader of the year

With a diverse background in psychiatric nursing, Bone has worked across various settings, including inpatient psychiatric units, geriatric, adult, and child psychiatry, as well as providing mental health care for incarcerated individuals. Her extensive experience has been instrumental in delivering comprehensive care to diverse populations. During the COVID-19 pandemic, she served as a travel nurse with Aya Healthcare, demonstrating her commitment to addressing urgent healthcare needs. Currently, she is a supervisor of a 365-bed rehabilitation and nursing center in Bronx, NYC.

Beyond her clinical work, Bone leverages her platform as an actress and model to advocate for mental health awareness. She has been featured in multiple international magazines and has appeared in various roles on network television. Her unique combination of healthcare expertise and media presence allows her to effectively communicate the importance of mental health care to a broad audience. She is a producer for the film Pony, which utilizes the entertaining world of female racers combined with family values and a mental health message through the story of Pony and Amanda Marchetti. This has allowed her to reach a broader audience than she could have strictly through traditional means. She is also a co-executive producer of an album by Da Gaimchng3r entitled The Last of My Kind, The Final Journey, which will be released shortly. She has a very active role in Gaimchng3r Entertainment.

Having been an executive contributor to Brainz Magazine, Bone has shared valuable insights on mental health, emphasizing proactive approaches to well-being. Her articles aim to empower individuals to take charge of their mental health and seek support when needed. The recognition from Brainz Magazine underscores her influence in both the healthcare and media sectors.

Kristin Bone's dedication to mental health care and her innovative approach to advocacy continue to inspire both her peers and the public. Her work exemplifies the impact that healthcare professionals can have beyond traditional clinical settings, highlighting the importance of multifaceted strategies in promoting mental health awareness.

Learn More about Kristin Bone:

Through her online profile, <https://todaysnurse.org/nurse/4150847>

Media Contact

TodaysNurse

@todaysnurse.com

Source : Kristin Bone

See on IssueWire

