

Leading Obstetrician-Gynecologist Dr. Stacey Wallach Elevates Women's Health Care in Sacramento

Renowned specialist brings over two decades of experience in obstetrics, gynecology, and urogynecology to her practice

New York City, New York May 15, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Dr. Stacey Wallach, a prominent obstetrician-gynecologist based in Sacramento, California, is dedicated to advancing women's health through her comprehensive care, specializing in the female reproductive system, pregnancy, and childbirth. With an impressive educational background and over 20 years of clinical experience, Dr.

Wallach is committed to providing exceptional medical services tailored to the needs of women at every stage of life.

Dr. Wallach earned her ScB in Biological Science from Brown University in 1991 and her MD from the State University of New York at Stony Brook in 1995. Her dedication to education continued as she completed her MBA at UC Davis in 2018, emphasizing her commitment to both clinical excellence and effective health care management.

“Throughout my career, I have focused on empowering women to take charge of their health,” said Dr. Wallach. “I believe in providing a safe and supportive environment where women can discuss their health concerns openly and receive the highest standard of care.”

Dr. Wallach’s extensive training includes fellowships in Urogynecology and Pelvic Reconstructive Surgery from Long Beach Memorial Medical Center and UC Irvine Medical Center. She is board-certified in obstetrics and gynecology and holds a subspecialty certification in Female Pelvic Medicine and Reconstructive Surgery. Her expertise encompasses a wide range of treatments, including urinary incontinence, vaginal prolapse, and stress incontinence.

As a faculty member at the University of California, Davis, Dr. Wallach has held various academic positions, including Professor and Medical Director of Transitions of Care. Her leadership in academic medicine is complemented by her role as a board examiner for the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology, where she contributes to the future of the profession by evaluating and certifying new OB-GYN specialists.

Dr. Wallach has received numerous accolades for her dedication to teaching and patient care, including the Sactown Magazine Top Doctors Award and the Exceptional Women in Medicine Top Doctors Award for multiple years. She is actively involved in various professional organizations, including the American College of Obstetrics and Gynecology and the American Urogynecologic Society.

In addition to her clinical and academic responsibilities, Dr. Wallach is passionate about community outreach and philanthropy, having served as a Medical Director for Women to Women, a national council for alcohol and drug dependency.
