Multan, Punjab Jun 26, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Learn With Ahmad offers the best job-oriented online certification courses in all Paid Courses, free of cost & more.

Revolutionizing Online Learning from Pakistan, One Free Course at a Time

Learn With Ahmad (LWA), Pakistan's leading online educational platform, is making waves by offering 100% free access to premium, job-oriented certification courses that are otherwise paid on other platforms. Founded by software developer and educator Ahmad Raza on July 2, 2023, the platform empowers students, job seekers, and freelancers with high-quality training in digital skills, web development, freelancing, digital marketing, and more.

Unlike conventional e-learning sites, Learn With Ahmad requires no registration fees, no hidden costs, and provides unlimited access to all courses, making it one of the most accessible educational portals for Pakistani youth and beyond.

"Our mission is to break the barrier between talent and opportunity," said Ahmad Raza.
"We want every student, whether rich or poor, to get a fair chance at success."

The platform has grown organically through platforms like YouTube, WhatsApp, and other social media, gathering thousands of active learners who are now building careers based on the skills they've gained.

Each course includes:

- Step-by-step video lectures
- Downloadable notes
- Real-world projects
- Interactive quizzes
- 24/7 guidance via WhatsApp

Learn With Ahmad is especially committed to:

- Supporting students in remote areas
- Providing freelancing skills for self-employment
- Preparing learners for job-readiness

The initiative has already changed hundreds of lives and continues to grow daily.
