

Lisa Walker, RN, BSN, CRNI, IgCN: A Dedicated Nurse Transforming Lives Through Compassionate Care

Northwell Health Nurse Combines Expertise in Infusion Therapy with a Commitment to Patient Welfare

New York City, New York May 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Lisa Walker, a highly regarded registered nurse, is making waves in the healthcare community with her exceptional skills and unwavering commitment to enhancing patient quality of life. With nearly two decades of experience in nursing, she has become a beacon of hope for patients undergoing biologic chemotherapy and other infusions, ensuring they receive the highest standard of care.

Lisa Walker completed her Associate of Science in Nursing at Nassau Community College in 2004 and furthered her education by earning a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Grand Canyon University in 2023. Specializing in the infusion of biologic chemotherapy, she possesses a deep understanding of the complexities involved in patient care. Her dedication to the profession is evidenced by her active participation in several professional organizations, including the Immunoglobulin National Society and the Oncology Nurse Society.

At Northwell Health, Lisa excels in her role, utilizing advanced certifications in PALS and ACLS and employing her expertise in emergency medicine to provide comprehensive care. Her leadership qualities shine through, as she has taken on significant responsibilities, including creating an EMS Peer Support Community aimed at suicide prevention for first responders. This initiative reflects her commitment not only to her patients but also to her colleagues within the healthcare system.

Lisa attributes her success to the profound impact of mentors throughout her career. Influential figures such as Al Toro and Gene Ianuzzi encouraged her journey from paramedicine to nursing, while Dr. Carmine Bellefluer recognized her leadership potential. These guiding relationships have instilled in Lisa a deep sense of purpose and resilience in her practice.

In her personal life, Lisa is an avid San Francisco 49ers fan, finding joy and camaraderie in the sport. However, it is her work that truly defines her. She believes in loving one's job and accepting the roles we play in life, which has helped her navigate the emotional challenges of nursing without succumbing to guilt or distress.

As a dedicated nurse at Northwell Health, Lisa Walker continues to change lives, exemplifying the values of communication, safety, and trust. Her journey and passion for nursing serve as an inspiration to both her patients and colleagues, solidifying her status as a true asset to the field of medicine.
