

Lori Collins, Recognized by BestAgents.us as a 2025 Top Agent

A Veteran Broker Associate Making Waves in Real Estate

New York City, New York May 26, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Lori Collins, a distinguished Broker Associate with eXp Realty, LLC, has solidified her reputation in the real estate industry with over twenty years of experience. Licensed in Utah, Arizona, and California, Collins specializes in the sale of residential and investment properties, providing clients with expert guidance throughout every stage of the transaction. Her meticulous approach, characterized by clear communication and a keen attention to detail, ensures a seamless experience for buyers and sellers alike. Operating primarily from her base in Springville, Utah, she serves the diverse needs of clients across Utah Valley, utilizing her extensive knowledge of the local markets.

Before her successful career in real estate, Collins made significant contributions to the healthcare field as a Respiratory Therapist, where she also took on the role of educator. This commitment to teaching continues to influence her work today; she is currently an instructor at Colibri Real Estate, where she dedicates her time to preparing aspiring real estate professionals through comprehensive pre-licensing education. Collins holds an Associate of Science degree from Napa Valley College and has pursued further studies in Health Science at Chapman University, along with specialized real estate training in finance, appraisal, legal matters, and creative financing techniques.

Lori's collaborative approach is further enhanced by her partnership with her husband, Jeff, who joined her team two years ago. Together, they provide a calm and knowledgeable presence for their clients, ensuring that the buying and selling processes are as informed and efficient as possible. Based in Springville, UT, the couple has built a reputation for their patient and supportive client interactions, which have become the cornerstone of their business philosophy.

In addition to her real estate practice, Collins is actively involved in various professional organizations, including chambers of commerce and women's business groups and the Local, State, and National Association of REALTORS®. Her leadership roles within these organizations underscore her dedication to both professional development and community engagement. As she continues to navigate the ever-evolving real estate landscape, Lori Collins remains committed to fostering growth and opportunity for her clients and peers alike.
