

LydiaAnn Hartney, APRN, Enhances In-Home Care in Florida with Mobile Physician Services

Bringing Extensive Experience and Compassionate Care to Homebound Patients

New York City, New York May 29, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Mobile Physician Services (MPS), a pioneering practice specializing in house calls to homebound patients, is proud to spotlight the continued dedication of LydiaAnn Hartney, APRN. With over two decades of nursing experience, LydiaAnn is set to enhance the quality of in-home care services offered by MPS in Florida and Ohio.

Headquartered in New Port Richey, Florida, MPS stands out as one of the few house call practices in the United States that offers both primary and specialist care, allowing for a comprehensive approach to patient health. The team at MPS is committed to addressing the complex medical needs of its patients, thus reducing the necessity for emergency care and hospital admissions while significantly improving patients' overall quality of life.

LydiaAnn Hartney earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Adelphi University in 1989 and advanced her education with a Master of Science in Nursing as an Adult Nurse Practitioner from the Medical University of South Carolina in 2000. Throughout her career, she has gained diverse clinical experience in areas such as internal medicine, obstetrics, orthopedics, and hospice care. LydiaAnn's role at MPS involves conducting in-home visits, managing post-hospitalization follow-ups, and ensuring continuity of care for patients.

In her previous positions, LydiaAnn has demonstrated a commitment to both clinical excellence and community engagement, participating in marketing initiatives to foster outreach and enhance practice growth. Her proficiency in electronic health records, including eClinicalWorks and Athena, allows for efficient and accurate clinical documentation, further supporting her commitment to high-quality care.

Recognized among the Top 100 of America's Best Nurses by the American Health Council, LydiaAnn Hartney attributes her achievements to a blend of faith, family support, and unwavering dedication. Her passion for nursing was ignited by her personal experiences with her aunt, who was handicapped for many years. Inspired by her aunt's resilience, LydiaAnn has made it her mission to provide compassionate care and to make a meaningful difference in the lives of others.
