Mary Swanson: Your Trusted Real Estate Partner in DeMotte, Indiana

New York City, New York May 23, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Mary Swanson, a seasoned Broker Associate with Morgin Realty, continues to make waves in the DeMotte real estate market with her unparalleled expertise and client-centric approach. With a rich career that began in 1990, Mary offers over three decades of experience, making her one of the most trusted names in real estate in Jasper County and the surrounding areas.

Mary specializes as a listing agent, and her business thrives on the strength of repeat clients and referrals. This success is a testament to the trust and strong relationships she has built over the years. Living in Jasper County for more than 35 years, Mary possesses an intimate knowledge of the local market, allowing her to effectively showcase the community's many advantages to prospective buyers.

Equipped with a Degree from Florida Atlantic University, Mary is dedicated to providing exceptional service across a diverse range of property types, including single-family homes, condominiums, rentals, farms, and vacant land. Her professional affiliations include membership in the Greater Northwest Association of Realtors, Multiple Listing Services, and the National Association of Realtors. Additionally, she holds prestigious national designations, including GRI (Graduate Realtor Institute) and ABR (Accredited Buyer's Representative).

Mary is renowned for her strong negotiation skills and responsive communication, ensuring that her clients feel supported at every step of the buying or selling process. Her client-first mindset allows her to go above and beyond to meet her clients' goals, combining professionalism with a personal touch to create a smooth and successful real estate experience.

Beyond her professional achievements, Mary is also an active member of her community. As a former Vice President of the DeMotte Chamber of Commerce and a long-time member of the Rotary Club, she is deeply committed to local engagement and service. Mary appreciates the charm of her community, where opportunities abound in agriculture and industry, particularly with the growth of major dairy and feed production companies.

For those looking to buy or sell property in DeMotte and the surrounding areas, Mary Swanson is the reliable partner you need. Her dedication, market knowledge, and commitment to client satisfaction make her the ideal choice for navigating the real estate landscape.
