

Max Haque, MD, MPH: A Compassionate Leader in Psychiatric Care in Lancaster, Ohio

Bringing Extensive Experience and Patient-Centered Care to the Community

New York City, New York May 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Ohio Psychiatric Services is proud to announce the continued leadership of Dr. Max Haque, a dedicated and compassionate psychiatrist who serves as the Medical Director of the organization. With a diverse and rich background in psychiatry, Dr. Haque has become a trusted figure in the Lancaster community, known for his patient-centered approach and commitment to mental health.

Dr. Haque's journey in medicine began in India, where he completed his medical education before advancing his studies in neurology and psychiatry at the prestigious Institute of Neurology in London, England. His international experience expanded as he practiced in various hospitals across England, Scotland, and Ireland, honing his skills and expertise in diverse settings.

In pursuit of further knowledge, Dr. Haque relocated to Houston, Texas, where he earned a master's degree in public health from the University of Houston. His dedication to excellence continued at New York Medical College, where he completed his residency in neurology and psychiatry. Dr. Haque's commitment to his studies was recognized with an award for academic excellence in his final year.

Following his residency, Dr. Haque completed a fellowship in geriatric psychiatry at Montefiore Hospital in New York City. He has since accumulated extensive experience in various psychiatric environments, including state hospitals, general hospitals, and maximum-security facilities. Notably, he was instrumental in establishing the behavioral health unit at Hocking Valley Community Hospital, where he served as the head of the psychiatry department for over 15 years.

At Ohio Psychiatric Services and TMS Center, Dr. Haque is dedicated to providing compassionate care tailored to the individual needs of his patients. His holistic approach to treatment emphasizes empathy, understanding, and collaboration, ensuring that every patient feels heard and valued.

Dr. Haque's extensive knowledge and experience have made a significant impact on the community's mental health landscape, fostering a supportive and healing environment for those in need. As he continues his work at Ohio Psychiatric Services, Dr. Haque remains committed to enhancing the lives of his patients and contributing to the overall well-being of Lancaster, Ohio.
