This strategic acquisition marks a significant step toward Multidots' long-term vision of supporting global businesses in navigating the complex landscape of data protection laws, particularly the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

"We believe privacy compliance is no longer a checkbox—it's a core business value. By acquiring Violating-GDPR.com, we are doubling down on our mission to help organizations understand, implement, and respect data ethics," said Anil Gupta, CEO and Co-founder of Multidots.

Violating-GDPR.com has been a unique and memorable platform aimed at raising awareness around GDPR violations and privacy pitfalls that businesses should avoid.
