

New Book Celebrates Feminist Leadership as a Pathway to Collective Healing and Liberation

THE JOY OF Feminist LEADERSHIP

Connection and Creativity for Peacekeepers,
Bridge Builders,
Communal Weavers,
and Cosmic Healers

Jessica Rachel Aviva, Ph.D.

Easton, Pennsylvania May 6, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Jessica Rachel Aviva, Ph.D., a visionary leader, educator, and community mobilizer, announces the release of her latest book, The Joy of Feminist Leadership!: Connection and Creativity for Peacekeepers, Bridge Builders, Communal Weavers, and Cosmic Healers. This research-based book is an essential resource for gender-inclusive, intersectional feminist leaders reimagining and reshaping organizations, academia, communities, and movements worldwide.

Available as a pay-what-you-want digital download at feministleadershipbook.com, The Joy of Feminist Leadership is will be offered in print through booksellers this summer.

In this groundbreaking work, Dr. Aviva explores:

- The transformative possibilities of feminist leadership rooted in an ideology of love
- A vibrant reimagining of feminist leadership beyond prevailing paradigms
- Key distinctions among feminist, feminine, and women's leadership
- Connections between feminist leadership and complementary leadership styles
- Practical frameworks, real-world examples, and strategies for feminist leadership

At its core, The Joy of Feminist Leadership is a celebration of radical love. Drawing from scholarly insights, lived experience, and the collective wisdom of feminist visionaries, Dr. Aviva offers an invitation to engage in deeper conversations about the role of leadership in fostering collective healing, liberation, and sustainable social change.

"For those dreaming wildly and working tirelessly for justice, this book is both a guide and a source of inspiration," says Dr. Aviva. "It's a call to embrace leadership as a joyful, creative, and deeply connected practice."
