POEMS BY
Francesco Favetta

Sciacca, Sicilia May 10, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Francesco Favetta, is a Poet born in the beautiful coastal city of Sciacca, in Sicily, a man tied to the freedom of thought and the eternal essence of art and culture.

He has always loved poetry, writing verses, but above all culture, because, it is food for the soul, and it is also, freedom and free spirit: it is a soul in motion, and should never be harnessed!

His life is a tireless journey dedicated to the celebration of beauty, and his creativity is rooted in the spiritual and transformative power of the arts, it is also constantly in continuous search of the truth and the origins of the roots of human life.

Francesco Favetta, raised in Sciacca, a few kilometers from Agrigento, the center and cultural cradle of the great Greek breath, the Sicilian Hellas, was immersed in the sea of life, from which, his verses, poetry, a cultural kaleidoscope that ignited his imagination since he was a child, sprang.

Poetry for Francesco has always been a beautiful journey, through which, personal awareness drowning in the sea of human daily life, has dragged existence into the superior spiritual dimension, into the place where silence is: the eternal music that cradles the human soul!

In 2018, Francesco, thanks to his artistic work and his talent, was awarded, as well as honored, with the title of Academician of Sicily, recognized by the prestigious Academy of Sicily, The verses of Francesco's poems have been published in numerous important and prestigious anthologies and literary magazines.

Francesco Favetta founded the theater company Theatrum Socialis Sciacca, and also the Lions Club "Sciacca Terme".

For him, poetry is not only a form of art, but a force for change, a way to free life from the invisible chains of the modern mental cage, it is still a powerful weapon to elevate the spirit and free it from the prisons of everyday human life.

With and through his verses, Francis communicates a fundamental message to humanity, namely how much the immanence of the absolute and imperishable sense of time remains in beauty, and also how in inner silence, we can transcend the immortal dialogue with the poetic breath, to which the soul yearns in its eternal beauty!

In Francesco's poetry, beauty is an intrinsic force, a transformative power, a song of the soul without borders and no obstacles, beauty as a truth that defies the tests of time and the sufferings of everyday life.

Everywhere for Francesco, beauty shows, every inner enchantment, both in nature and in the arts: it is a light that guides and inspires all, those who have received the warm feeling of emotions intrinsically born from the inner voice. In his path, in this personal journey, Francesco, testifies to the universal and evocative power of Poetry as an absolute value, capable of uniting people, inspiring souls, instilling hope and healing.

Francesco Favetta is a man who has dedicated his human path constantly in the name of cultural research, in the complex heartfelt desire to increase awareness and knowledge, celebrating the cultural world with every single breath of his life, permeated with verses, culture and truth.
