

Reema Al Khatib's Tigre Rosa Redefines Luxury Footwear with Global Showcases and Empowering Designs

Jebel Ali, Dubai Jan 20, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Reema Al Khatib, the visionary designer behind the luxury footwear brand Tigre Rosa, is making waves in the fashion world with her bold, feminine, and timeless designs. Rooted in elegance and innovation, Tigre Rosa is gaining global recognition for blending high fashion with meaningful storytelling—through heels that empower women to walk confidently in style and spirit.

A Journey of Passion and Purpose

Reema's journey began with a passion for design that blossomed into a mission to inspire women through fashion. Inspired by art, architecture, and the modern woman, her creations are more than footwear—they are wearable works of art that reflect individuality, confidence, and the strength of women. With natural top-graded stones, bold silhouettes, and impeccable Italian craftsmanship, Tigre Rosa heels stand as symbols of confidence, sophistication, and strength.

“What sets us apart is not just our design, but the story we tell with every pair,” says Reema. “Tigre Rosa is about inspiring women to feel confident, powerful, and to improve on their full potential. Because women are powerful.”

Spotlight on the Global Stage: Milan Fashion Week

Tigre Rosa recently took center stage at Milan Fashion Week, showcasing its iconic heels at the prestigious Glauco Cavaciuti gallery. The presentation was a dazzling fusion of artistry and innovation, with heels adorned in natural gemstones like tiger's eye and clear quartz—each carrying unique energy properties and meaning.

From intricate detailing to standout silhouettes, the presentation captivated influencers, media, and fashion insiders alike, positioning Tigre Rosa as one of the most exciting luxury brands emerging from the region.

Making an Impact in Riyadh

Earlier this year, Tigre Rosa also captivated audiences at Layali El Meshraq, a prestigious art and fashion exhibition held at Via Riyadh Mall, Saudi Arabia. From March 11–17, the brand presented its elegant creations to a diverse and dynamic crowd, offering attendees a chance to explore the fusion of tradition and modernity that defines the Tigre Rosa aesthetic.

The event further solidified the brand's growing presence in the GCC region and highlighted its ability to resonate across cultures and markets.

Footwear with Meaning

Tigre Rosa's distinctive touch includes the use of top-grade natural stones in its heels, such as:

- Brown Tiger's Eye – for confidence and empowerment
- Blue Tiger's Eye – for clarity and courage
- White Quartz – for peace and balance

Each element is chosen to elevate not only the visual appeal but also the emotional experience of wearing Tigre Rosa. This thoughtful approach resonates with the brand's audience: modern, ambitious women who value purpose, artistry, and individuality.

Looking Ahead

With new collections, global collaborations, and sustainability-focused projects on the horizon, Tigre Rosa continues to raise the bar for luxury footwear. Under Reema Al Khatib's creative direction, the brand remains committed to celebrating women through craftsmanship, innovation, and elegance.
