

Say Goodbye to Scratches: This New Touchless Car Wash Delivers Shine Straight to Your Driveway

Louisiana's First Touchless Car Wash-on-Wheels Is Redefining Car Care at Home.

Hammond, Louisiana May 8, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - A fresh, brush-free approach to car care is catching eyes across Southeast Louisiana. SayNoMore Super Mobile Car Wash—founded by local entrepreneur Tyjae—is rewriting the rules with the state's first fully touchless, on-demand car wash. No tunnels. No brushes. No waiting in line. Just showroom-grade results delivered straight to your driveway.

Now Serving 40+ Miles Around Tangipahoa Parish

Covering Hammond, Ponchatoula, Covington, Mandeville, Amite, Denham Springs, Gonzales, LaPlace, and beyond, SayNoMore brings its high-gloss, contact-free system directly to homes—offering a better, faster way to clean your car. And with expansion plans already in motion, this is just the beginning.

A Car Wash Built for Today's Drivers

SayNoMore uses precision foam, ceramic-infused formulas, and water-saving rinse-free tech to protect your paint and deliver unbeatable gloss—without hoses, brushes, or scratches. The entire process is designed around speed, safety, and convenience.

- Exterior touchless washes: Done in 30 minutes or less
- Full interior + exterior packages: Completed in under 2 hours
- No travel, labor, or gas fees—ever

“We’re giving car owners something they’ve never had: a true showroom finish, without the hassle,” said founder Tyjae. “Touchless technology protects modern paint and saves people time. That’s a win all around.”

The Rise of Mobile, Contact-Free Car Care

Recent industry research supports what SayNoMore already knows: modern car owners want safer, smarter ways to keep their vehicles clean.

- 58% of U.S. drivers are dissatisfied with traditional tunnel washes
- Paint swirls and micro-scratches are commonly caused by outdated brush systems
- 70% of car owners prefer vehicle services at home
- The U.S. car wash market is expected to hit $20.7 billion by 2028, led by demand for eco-friendly, mobile solutions

SayNoMore is meeting the moment—delivering expert-level results using premium ceramic products, no-contact techniques, and an experience that fits your lifestyle.

Customer Reactions: Real Reviews, Real Results

“I was seriously impressed with SayNoMore!” said local customer Ryan Petit. “It felt like I had just driven my car off the lot again. The attention to detail was unreal. Professional, convenient, and the car looked (and smelled) brand new. I’ll definitely be booking again.”
