

Sekyo Becomes India's No. 1 Kids' Smartwatch Brand, Redefining Child Safety Through Technology

Sekyo's smart, secure, and parent-approved wearables dominate India's kids' smartwatch market.

Delhi, India May 12, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Sekyo, now recognized as India's No. 1 kids' smartwatch brand, is setting a new benchmark in child safety and wearable technology. With thousands of parents across the country trusting Sekyo for real-time tracking, secure communication, and peace of mind, the brand has firmly established itself as the go-to name for children's wearables.

Founded by Smridhi Goyal, Sekyo was launched in response to the urgent need for safer, smarter, and more age-appropriate digital devices for children. What began as a solution to modern parenting concerns has grown into a nationally recognized leader in the child tech space.

“Sekyo’s growth proves one thing clearly — parents are looking for more than just gadgets. They want safe, smart, and practical solutions. That’s what we deliver,” said Smridhi Goyal, Founder of Sekyo.

What Makes Sekyo India’s #1 Kids Smartwatch Brand?

- 4G Smartwatches with Video & Audio Calling – Connect with your child anytime, anywhere.
- Live GPS Tracking & Geo-Fencing – Monitor your child’s location in real time and set safety zones.
- SOS Emergency Alerts – One-button emergency call for quick response.
- Complete Parental Control – Restrict features, monitor remotely, and schedule “Do Not Disturb” time.
- Distraction-Free Tech – No social media, no open internet, just safety and communication.

Trusted Nationwide

Sekyo is now available across India via www.sekyo.in, Amazon, Flipkart, Tata Croma, and FirstCry. With products starting at just ₹2,499 and robust after-sales support, Sekyo combines affordability with reliability. All devices are BIS and ISO certified, waterproof, and kid-tough.
