

Shaik Lion – A Multidisciplinary Artist Behind the Success of Payback

Cuddapah, Andhra Pradesh May 29, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Shaik Lion, a true multidisciplinary artist, has recently showcased his diverse talents in the film Payback. From composing music to editing visuals, from crafting the soundscape to singing a song – his contribution to the movie has been nothing short of extraordinary.

In Payback, Shaik Lion served as the music composer, video editor, colorist, foley artist, sound engineer, and also performed vocals for one of the songs. His ability to handle multiple creative domains with precision and professionalism is a testament to his versatility and dedication to the craft.

The film was directed by A. Surendra, who placed his complete trust in Shaik Lion's capabilities. Surendra believed that Shaik Lion would deliver a professional-grade output across all departments – and he did not disappoint. In fact, it was Shaik Lion's belief and confidence in the film that helped push Payback to reach OTT platforms.

Initially, the plan was to release Payback on YouTube post-production. However, Shaik Lion encouraged the director and motivated him to aim higher. "Your film deserves an OTT release," he said with conviction. Standing true to his word, Shaik Lion made it happen – and today, Payback is streaming on Amazon Prime Video and Fawsome TV.

His journey with Payback proves that when creativity is combined with confidence and commitment, extraordinary results follow. Shaik Lion continues to inspire as a one-man creative powerhouse in the Indian independent film scene.
