Dedicated to Community and Client Satisfaction in Lakeway and the Greater Austin Area

New York City, New York May 22, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Shaun Duffenbach, a dedicated Realtor Associate with Berkshire Hathaway Premier Properties, is making waves in the real estate market across Lakeway and the greater Austin area. Originally hailing from Wisconsin, Shaun has proudly called Austin home since 2010, bringing a unique global perspective to his real estate practice.

Shaun's journey into real estate follows a distinguished career in the United States Navy, where he volunteered for submarine service at the young age of 18 where he was stationed in Pearl Harbor onboard a nuclear powered fast-attack submarine. This experience ingrained in him a profound sense of discipline, integrity, and meticulous attention to detail—qualities that now define his approach to serving clients in every transaction. Since earning his real estate license in 2017, Shaun has established himself as a top agent, consistently exceeding client expectations and fostering strong relationships.

Working with a diverse clientele, Shaun specializes in luxury real estate, investment properties, new construction, and military/veteran services. His extensive knowledge of the local market, combined with his commitment to clear communication and strategic guidance, ensures that every client, from first-time homebuyers to seasoned investors, receives the highest level of service.

"Real estate is more than just transactions for me; it's about building relationships and contributing to the vibrant community we have here in Austin," says Shaun. "I genuinely enjoy engaging with local initiatives, whether it's supporting local sports teams and working with athletes aspiring to make it professionally or community events, and I'm proud to be part of such a dynamic area."

In addition to his real estate career, Shaun is actively involved in the community as a co-founder of the Leander Wolfpack, a minor-professional football team established in 2017 that won the TUFA Championship in 2021 and played in the National Championship the same year in Washington D.C. His passion for entrepreneurship, investing in real estate, and community engagement drives him to give back, further solidifying his commitment to the Austin area. Shaun is also an avid golfer and enjoys playing all around the Austin area.

Shaun credits his success to hard work, dedication, and the ability to connect with clients on a personal level. He is always available to listen and address their needs, ensuring a seamless experience throughout the buying or selling process.
