

Tokyo/Manila/L.A. Jazz Summit, Along with Shan Potts Law Offices, Celebrates Human Connection Across Cultures

Sunday, June 1 at The Catalina Jazz Club

Los Angeles, California May 29, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - The first-ever Tokyo/Manila/L.A. Jazz Summit on Sunday, June 1 will celebrate human connection across cultures and a collective love of jazz. Musicians representing these three dynamic cities will honor the past, present and future of jazz on stage and in meaningful conversation with a show, pre-show performance and Q&A at Catalina Jazz Club, 6725 West Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, CA 90028, catalinajazzclub.com.

"We are very happy to bring together these fabulous artists who represent the best in jazz from around the world," said Cathy Segal-Garcia, Summit co-producer and performer. "There's a very special magic that happens when you bring together music lovers from different cultures to collaborate and create a one night only and truly unique performance of jazz."

The Tokyo/Manila/L.A. Jazz Summit performance features jazz vocalists Cathy Segal-Garcia, Mon David, Charito, Cheryl Barnes, Alvin Reyes and Dolores Scozzesi. On stage with the five vocalists are ten stellar jazz instrumentalists including Piano: Sam Hirsh & Tamir Hendelman on piano; Edwin Livingston & Ahmet Sezin on bass; Lyndon Rochelle & Chris Wabich on drums; Yu Ooka & Dori Amarilio on guitar; Nolan Shaheed on trumpet and Nori Tan on flute.

Prior to the performance, attendees are encouraged to gather on the outdoor patio with the musicians for a Q&A with the performers. The group will explore ideas related to creating joy through music, honoring the global appeal of jazz and celebrating multiculturalism. A pre-show performance will be led by award-winning guitarist Jackson Petty.

Presented by Human Connection, in cooperation with Shan Potts Law Offices, the inspiration for the Summit is to bring together diverse people who share a love of jazz.

Co-founded by Mon David, Cathy Segal-Garcia, "Human Connection" endeavors to connect lives by showcasing music with multi-dimensional qualities to heal, nurture and inspire. For more information, visit www.humanconnectionmusic.com.
