

Zoe Cohen: A Rising Star in Oncology Nursing in Buffalo

Buffalo's Healthcare Community Welcomes a Compassionate Leader Dedicated to Patient Care

New York City, New York May 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Zoe Cohen, a dedicated and passionate registered nurse at Roswell Park Comprehensive Cancer Institute, is making waves in the healthcare community of Buffalo. With a focus on enhancing the quality of life for her patients, Cohen embodies the core values of communication, safety, and trust in her nursing practice. As a recent graduate of Columbia University School of Nursing, she is committed to making a positive impact in the field of oncology nursing.

Cohen's journey into nursing began at a young age, sparked by a heartfelt gift from her mother—a doctor kit received during Hanukkah. This early exposure ignited a lifelong passion for medicine and caregiving. Her educational background includes a Bachelor of Arts in Health and Human Services with a concentration in Community Mental Health from the University at Buffalo, followed by a Master of Science in Nursing from Columbia University. This rigorous training has equipped her with the knowledge and skills necessary to provide exceptional care to her patients.

As a registered nurse specializing in oncology, Cohen is dedicated to improving the lives of those battling cancer. Her empathetic nature allows her to connect deeply with her patients, offering not only medical expertise but also emotional support during challenging times. “I love going to work every day,” says Cohen. “My patients inspire me, and I feel honored to be a part of their journey.”

She is also a proud member of professional societies such as Sigma Beta Tau and the National Comprehensive Cancer Network, which reflects her commitment to staying abreast of the latest developments in the field. In her spare time, she enjoys reading research articles in PUBMED and the Journal of Medicine, continually seeking to expand her knowledge and improve her practice.

Cohen's family is proud of her achievements as the first in her family to pursue a career in medicine. Her success is a testament to her dedication, hard work, and the love she has for her chosen field. As she continues her nursing career, Zoe Cohen stands as a true asset to the Buffalo healthcare community, dedicated to making a lasting difference in the lives of her patients.
