Sonia So Shines as One of Hong Kong's Emerging Actresses and Entertainment Industry Connectors

Celebrated actress Sonia SO (Sonia Aristo) continues to excel in the entertainment arena, showcasing her versatility and talent as one of Hong Kong's most engaging performers. With a remarkable career to date, Sonia has become a prominent figure not only on screen but also in the vibrant media landscape of Hong Kong.

After graduating from The Chinese University of Hong Kong and Soka University in Tokyo, Sonia initially embarked on a professional journey in the financial sector. She began her career as an Administrative Officer in the Chairman's Office of Mr. Li Ka-shing, and later spent six years at HSBC, where she worked across various roles in IT, Communications, and HR. Notably, she played a vital role in establishing a Type 9 asset management company for the Deng Xiaoping family, demonstrating her exceptional skills in administration and management.

Sonia made the exciting transition from the corporate world to the entertainment industry, where she has dazzled audiences with her performances in over 500 productions, including movies, TV dramas, and advertisements. Her work extends beyond Hong Kong, with appearances in productions in the People's Republic of China, Korea, and the Philippines, highlighting her international appeal and collaborative spirit.

Sonia's vibrant on-screen presence has earned her significant recognition, including invitations to participate in various ViuTV variety shows. One of her standout moments came during an interview with top entertainer Johnny Hui, where she shared valuable insights into health and wellness.

In addition to her acting career, Sonia also works as a Key Opinion Leader (KOL) and event hostess, leveraging her extensive experience to effectively manage numerous events and connect with both talent and producers. She has established a prominent network within the entertainment industry, which truly sets her apart as a key connector in Hong Kong's media scene.

Sonia is dedicated to supporting emerging talent in the industry through her "Show Sonia" WhatsApp group, which serves as a job board for individuals seeking paid jobs in acting and modelling. The group currently boasts over 600 members, creating a dynamic community where actors, models, production houses, and directors come together to share opportunities and resources.

Sonia SO embodies the spirit of creativity and connection in the entertainment industry, and her journey exemplifies determination and passion. She invites fans and industry professionals alike to connect and explore her work in more detail.
