

Amar Sayani, OD, MS, FAAO: A Leader in Pediatric Optometry and Sports Vision Training

Pioneering Advances in Vision Rehabilitation and Pediatric Care

New York City, New York Jun 18, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Amar Sayani, OD, MS, FAAO, is making waves in the field of pediatric optometry as a dedicated practitioner with a focus on sports vision training, post-concussion vision rehabilitation, and learning-related visual dysfunction. His well-rounded expertise allows him to provide exceptional care to children and athletes alike, emphasizing the importance of clear vision in every aspect of life.

Born and raised in Toronto, Ontario, Dr. Sayani graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Western Ontario in 2006. He went on to earn his Doctor of Optometry from the Pennsylvania College of Optometry at Salus University in Philadelphia in 2010. Following this, he completed a residency in pediatrics and vision therapy/rehabilitation at Southern College of Optometry in Memphis, Tennessee, in 2013.

Dr. Sayani's career has evolved from private practice in adult and pediatric ophthalmology to academia. He is currently an Assistant Professor of Pediatric Optometry at Nova Southeastern University College of Optometry, where he teaches courses on Pediatric Optometry and Sports Vision, while also precepting third and fourth-year students in the Pediatrics and Binocular Vision Clinic. His commitment to education has earned him numerous accolades, including the distinguished Preceptor of the Year award from his students.

A Fellow of the American Academy of Optometry (AAO), Dr. Sayani is also an active member of the Neuro-Optometric Rehabilitation Association (NORA) and serves as a Clinical Associate of the Optometric Extension Program Foundation (OEPF). His extensive knowledge and passion for the field have led him to present lectures and workshops across the United States, Canada, and Mexico, focusing on sports vision enhancement, vision rehabilitation for concussion patients, and pediatric pharmacology.

Dr. Sayani is dedicated to improving the lives of his patients through innovative vision care. He enjoys mentoring future clinicians and collaborating with the esteemed faculty at NSU College of Optometry to advance the field of optometry. His holistic approach not only prioritizes the visual needs of his patients but also emphasizes the critical role of vision in sports performance and overall health.
