

Attorney Joabs Sobrinho Offers Strategic Criminal Defense Services in the U.S

Providing Expert Legal Counsel and Defense in Complex Financial and Corporate Crime Cases Across Brazil and the United States

Manhattan, New York Jun 9, 2025 (IssueWire.com) - Criminal lawyer Dr. Joabs Manoel da Silva Sobrinho, founding partner of JSobrinho Advogados Associados, has strengthened his international presence by establishing a legal office in the United States, expanding the scope of his practice between Brazil and the U.S. This strategic move consolidates his reputation as a leading figure in high-complexity criminal cases and reinforces his commitment to the defense of constitutional rights.

Dr. Joabs is widely recognized for his expertise in handling cases involving Economic Criminal Law, Financial Crimes, Money Laundering, Corruption, Corporate Fraud, and Criminal Compliance. His practice encompasses both the defense of the accused and assistance to the prosecution in cases involving violent crimes, financial offenses, and organized crime, with significant national and international impact.

Known for his rigorous analytical approach, Dr. Joabs treats each case as a complex system, requiring detailed examination of investigations, forensic evidence, and witness statements. This methodology has positioned him as a reference in strategic criminal defense, combining legal precision with human sensitivity.

"Practicing criminal law demands more than legal expertise; it requires a deep understanding of the human drama inherent in every case," emphasizes Dr. Joabs. His ability to communicate with clarity and empathy has made him a distinguished presence in courtrooms across multiple jurisdictions.

Frequently invited for interviews on radio and television, Dr. Joabs has become a respected and widely cited voice in both Brazilian and international media. He actively contributes to public discourse on the role of criminal defense attorneys and the essential importance of due process and the right to a full defense, particularly in the context of intense media scrutiny.

With offices in Rio de Janeiro, Niterói, São Paulo, and New York, JSobrinho Advogados Associados represents a new generation of criminal defense lawyers. The firm is composed of highly qualified professionals who are socially engaged and committed to safeguarding fundamental rights.

"Everyone deserves a full defense, even those who are often condemned by public opinion before having the opportunity to be heard by the courts," reinforces Dr. Joabs. His dedication to ensuring the integrity of constitutional guarantees continues to shape his international legal strategy.

The firm's expansion into the United States marks a significant step toward enhancing its capabilities in transnational cases and fostering legal collaboration between Brazilian and American judicial systems. This growth is firmly guided by the ethical and constitutional principles that define criminal advocacy.
