Celebrating Excellence in Nursing and Patient Care in Oklahoma's Premier Academic Hospital

New York City, New York Jun 9, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Billie Devilbiss, RN, a dedicated Registered Nurse Supervisor at OU Health University of Oklahoma Medical Center, has been recognized for her exemplary leadership and unwavering commitment to patient care in the heart of Oklahoma. OU Health University of Oklahoma Medical Center stands as the only comprehensive academic hospital in the state, renowned for offering a vast array of medical and surgical services that cater to the diverse needs of the region.

As Oklahoma's only Level I trauma center, OU Health University of Oklahoma Medical Center serves as a critical multi-state resource for injury prevention and treatment. The hospital is home to the state's most experienced organ transplant team and delivers unparalleled care for stroke patients through its advanced neurology and neurosurgery services. In collaboration with the Stephenson Cancer Center, the hospital boasts Oklahoma's only comprehensive bone marrow transplant center and provides an extensive range of radiation therapy options, solidifying its position as a leader in cancer care.

Billie Devilbiss, who earned her Registered Nursing Degree from Oklahoma City Community College, attributes her success in the demanding healthcare field to her strong faith in God and her deep love for people. "Every day is an opportunity to make a difference in someone's life," Billie shared. "I am passionate about providing compassionate care and fostering a supportive environment for both patients and staff."

In her role as a Registered Nurse Supervisor, Billie oversees nursing staff and ensures the delivery of high-quality care to all patients. Her leadership has been instrumental in enhancing patient experiences at OU Health University of Oklahoma Medical Center, where healthcare professionals are dedicated to employing the latest research and medical advancements.

As the hospital continues to evolve and expand its services, Billie Devilbiss remains committed to her mission of promoting health and wellness within the community. Her dedication not only reflects the values of OU Health but also inspires her colleagues to strive for excellence in patient care.
