

Brittany Gavin, RN, BSN, SANE: A Dedicated Advocate for Patients at Mercy Fitzgerald Hospital

Leading With Integrity and Heart in Serving Vulnerable Adult and Pediatric Patients

New York City, New York Jun 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Mercy Fitzgerald Hospital proudly recognizes Brittany Gavin, RN, BSN, SANE, for her exceptional commitment and invaluable contributions as a Registered Nurse in the Emergency Room and Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner for both adult and pediatric populations. Armed with a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Neumann University, Brittany has been an integral part of the healthcare community since her graduation in 2011.

At Mercy Fitzgerald Hospital, a 178-bed teaching hospital renowned for its advanced acute care services, Brittany plays a crucial role in delivering compassionate and accessible healthcare to the residents of Delaware County and Southwest Philadelphia. Before joining Mercy Fitzgerald, Brittany was affiliated with Delaware County Memorial Hospital, where she honed her skills and gained invaluable experience until its closure in 2022. Additionally, she served as a Nursing Supervisor at Crozer-Chester Medical Center before its planned closure in May 2025.

Mercy Fitzgerald Hospital has long been recognized for its clinical excellence, earning accolades such as the Blue Distinction Center for Cardiac Care and the Bariatric Surgery Center of Excellence. With a mission to help and heal since 1933, the hospital is dedicated to providing outstanding healthcare tailored to meet the unique needs of each patient.

Brittany understands that nursing is not just a profession; it is a calling that requires empathy, teamwork, and a genuine desire to help others. "In the nursing field, we encounter individuals during some of their most challenging times. It is essential to approach each situation with compassion and understanding," Brittany explains. Her passion for helping people drives her to go above and beyond, ensuring that every patient feels valued and cared for.

As a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner, Brittany provides specialized care and support to survivors, demonstrating both clinical expertise and profound sensitivity. Her dedication to this role exemplifies her commitment to improving the lives of those in her care.

Mercy Fitzgerald Hospital is proud to have Brittany Gavin on its team, reflecting its overarching mission to deliver high-quality healthcare. With professionals like Brittany on staff, the hospital continues to uphold its reputation for excellence, compassion, and patient-centered care.
