Carla Parrish-Aylworth: Bridging Compassion and Commitment in Property Management

New York City, New York Jun 22, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Parrish Legacy Properties, L.L.C., is proud to spotlight Carla Parrish-Aylworth, a dedicated Property Management Specialist whose expertise and hands-on approach are transforming the housing landscape in Pocatello, Idaho. With deep-rooted ties to the rental industry and a passion for serving her community, Carla plays a pivotal role in ensuring that both tenants and property owners receive the highest standard of care.

Carla's journey in property management is a testament to her lifelong commitment to helping others. Raised in a family that managed rental homes, she gained invaluable insights into the industry from an early age. This foundational experience laid the groundwork for her transition into property management after a successful career in nursing and as a nurse practitioner, which spanned from 1984 until her current venture. Her nursing background has instilled in her a deep sense of empathy and a strong work ethic that she now applies to her property management endeavors.

What began as a modest effort to manage a few inherited homes has blossomed into a thriving property management company, launched alongside her husband and daughter. Today, Parrish Legacy Properties proudly serves an ever-growing roster of clients, offering a full suite of property management services. Carla's role focuses on tenant relations and property oversight, ensuring that homes are not only well-maintained but also that tenants feel valued and respected.

"The key to our success lies in our family's commitment to hard work and hands-on involvement, so even the grandkids help us sometimes," Carla explains. "We believe in building lasting relationships with our clients and tenants alike, making sure that everyone feels at home."

Beyond her professional achievements, Carla treasures the small-town charm of Pocatello, where she enjoys the balance of community and convenience. When she's not managing properties, she can often be found playing volleyball with her daughter, swimming, enjoying family outings, along with providing service through being a member of the Chubbuck Lion's Club and as a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. This further reinforces her belief in nurturing connections at home, in the community, and in her work.

As Parrish Legacy Properties continues to grow, Carla Parrish-Aylworth remains devoted to her mission of providing responsive and thoughtful service, ensuring that everyone she works with feels like part of the family.
