David Steinberg Joins MJPCRE Group as Executive Director of Commercial Real Estate

New York City, New York Jun 11, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - MJPCRE Group is proud to announce the appointment of David Steinberg as the Executive Director of Commercial Real Estate and Senior Real Estate Advisor. With over three decades of expertise in the field, Steinberg is renowned for his proficiency in site selection, entitlement management, lease negotiations, and strategic growth planning across diverse markets. He holds an active real estate license in California and is dedicated to guiding clients through every phase of the transaction process, ensuring a seamless experience from negotiation to contract execution.

Before joining MJPCRE Group, Steinberg spent 18 years as the Real Estate Director at Rite Aid, where he was instrumental in overseeing development operations across more than 20 states. His leadership was pivotal in executing new store openings, relocations, remodels, and property dispositions. Additionally, he played a crucial role in various initiatives, including software transitions, crisis response strategies, and distribution center planning, showcasing his ability to navigate complex challenges in the retail sector.

Steinberg's extensive experience also encompasses ownership of a trendy full-service restaurant, followed by leadership positions at CKE Restaurants, Pennant Food Corp., and Cimm's Inc. His responsibilities in these roles included operational excellence, marketing, menu design/product mix, and full-cycle development, which comprised market analysis, site acquisition, construction management, and tenant coordination. His comprehensive understanding of the industry allows him to implement efficient systems that streamline development processes and facilitate expansion across multiple states.

In addition to his professional achievements, David Steinberg is committed to giving back to the commercial real estate community. He serves as a mentor in the ICSC Mentor Program, judges for the ICSC Scholarship Program, and is a former member of the California State University, Northridge Business Advisory Committee. His prior involvement with the Project Management Institute and previous contributions to the Southern California Franchise Association's Development Committee for Burger King further exemplify his dedication to the industry.

MJPCRE Group is excited to leverage Steinberg's vast knowledge and experience as it continues to excel in the commercial real estate sector. His strategic insights and proven track record will undoubtedly strengthen the firm's capabilities and enhance service delivery to clients.
