London, England Jun 16, 2025 (Issuewire.com) - Deltabase, a leader in Generative AI-powered competitor intelligence, is excited to announce the launch of its official Media Accreditation access, now available to journalists and media outlets seeking deeper insight into today's most innovative companies.

This new initiative offers accredited media partners exclusive access to curated intelligence reports and AI industry commentary derived from Deltabase's proprietary research platform. Approved media professionals will gain access to reliable, on-demand insights that can enrich their reporting and provide added depth to coverage of topics such as mergers & acquisitions, IPOs, and the emergence of unicorns.

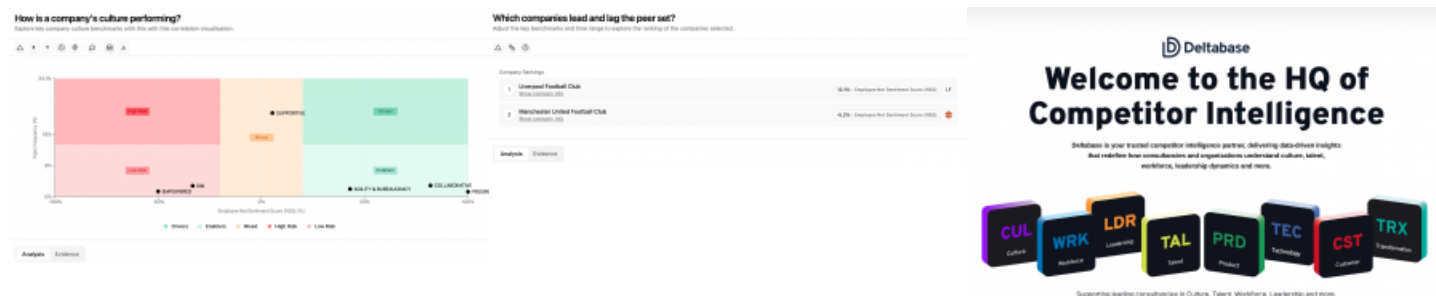

"We've built Deltabase to decode how organisations really operate—and we know how valuable that can be to trusted media voices shaping the public conversation," said Phil Spratt, Co-Founder of Deltabase. "This Media Accreditation is about empowering those voices with verified intelligence."

Already used by some of the world's leading consultancy firms and described as "the Experian of company benchmarking,” Database is setting a new standard for intelligence in the AI era.
